

To Project Manager - Code Maintenance, Food Standards Australia New Zealand

This is to advise that NZFGC supports the regular updating of the Australia New Zealand Food Standards Code and especially supports:

- Amendments in several places to notes reflecting New Zealand's decision to fortify wheat flour for breadmaking with folic acid
- Adding the most recent references for JECFA monographs, the Food Chemicals codex, and the International Oenological Codex
- Correcting microorganism terms for consistency.